BROUGHT IN THE COURT ROOM.

Identified by Mrs. Conklin as the Ones Worn by the Doctor on the Evening of His Fatal Ride—Several Other Witnesses Give Damaging Evidence Against the Suspects.

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—Miss Martha A.
Johnson, private secretary to Dr. Belfield, the microscopist, who, as an expert, testified in the Cronin case on Saturday, was the first witness on Monday morning. She testified that the specimens of blood and hair from the Carlson cottage, delivered to her by Police Captain Schasack, were by her turned over to Dr. Belfield.

Henry Buchholz, a saloon keeper at 2806 Cottage avenue, was the next witness. He knew John Kunze. Kunze boarded at his place from April 14 up to time of his arrest. While at his place Kunze was known as John Kaiser.
The defense objected to Buchholz's evidence because his name was not given them until Monday. The court overruled the objection, but permitted the defense to postpone their cross-examination.

Charles Heromer, a tailor, who keeps a shop near Buchholz's saloon, was then called. His testimony corroborated that of Buchholz, that Kunze boarded there some time and was known as John Kaiser.

John P. Dunne, a plumber at 997 Lincoln avenue, said he was in Cameron's saloon one night in April, when Kunze and Coughlin entered. Dunne previously knew Kunze, and was introduced by the latter to Coughlin, who referred to Kunze as his friend. The three drank together, and Dunne went away. The cross-examination was brief and nothing new was brought out.

Frank O. Washburne, a saloonkeeper at 1320 Wellington avenue, saw Kunze and Sullivan at his saloon some time in March. They were driving a brown horse attached to a buggy, which Kunze said he had bought from O'Sullivan.
Witness rode home from his saloon with the two men.

Joseph Petowski, a laborer, testified that he boarded at Buchholz's with Kunze, and that the latter gave his name as Kaiser. Kaiser talked frequently of Lakeview and invited witness to go thither with him. Witness said Kaiser was away from his room all night one night in May. Petowski was not cross-examined.

One Klahre, the tinsmith, testified that one Monday morning in the early part of May Martin Burke and an expressman came to his father's tin shop, on North Clark street. Burke had the galvanized iron box and wanted a top soldered on it.

Witness spoke about the Cronin case and Burke said he was a British spy and ought to be killed. Witness then told of his attempt to raise the lid of the box and Burke prevented him. Witness fixed the box and it was taken away by the expressman. Burke's face flushed while Klahre was giving his testimony.
Witness said he next saw Burke in jail.

On cross-examination Klahre said it was May 6 when Burke brought the box to be soldered. He remembered it because that day the papers said something about the doctor being a spy.

Witness described the expressman, and then gave a detailed representation of every stage of the process of soldering the box.

Witness had stated that he gave the first information of the box soldering to Capt. Schuetzler, and on redirect examination said that Capt. Schuetzler sent him to see about some boxes he had made for Sullivan.

Michael Walsh, a gas fitter, was next called. Walsh and Burke roomed together in Joliet, a short distance from this city, from May 9 to May 18, and it was attempted to prove by the witness that Burke during his stay there was comparatively poor if not in needy circumstances, while a week or so later the suspect was found in Winnipeg with money in his pocket, a ticket bought for Europe, and able counsel to defend him in the subsequent extradition proceedings. The effort proved so unavailing, however, and the witness so calcitrant that Mr. Forrest did not care to cross-examine, even to the extent of a single question.

Joseph O. Byrne, senior guardian of Camp 266, was recalled and testified that on the Tuesday subsequent to Dr.
Cronin's disappearance Beggs, in conversation with the witness, Maurice Morris and Dennis Ward, said, in reply to a suggestion made by Morris that the doctor was in all likelihood dead: "You don't know what you are talking about.
You are not in the inner circle; we are." The witness previos to that time had never heard of an "inner circle" in the Clan-na-Gael.

Dr. John F. Williams was called to cast suspicion upon O'Sullivan's mysterious contract with Dr. Cronin. He testified that he had been O'Sullivan's physician for a period of two or three years, and during that time the doctor's bill had not amounted to over $5 a year.

Maurice Morris was recalled and corroborated the testimony given by O'Byrne in regard to the "inner circle" conversation held with Beggs.

Mike Gilbert, a sewer cleaner, testified to finding Cronin's effects last Friday, and then the clothes and instruments of the murdered physician were brought into the court room. There was a buzz of excitement from the spectators' benches as the tell tale relics were lugged in and the clerk was compelled to wield his gavel vigorously to induce the crowd, which had risen to catch a glimpse of them as they were exposed to the view of the jury, to sit down. The prisoners, save Beggs, who scarcely looked at them, evinced as much curiosity as the spectators.

Chief of Police Hubbard read the card and several prescriptions of the doctor's found in the pocketbook which bore the doctor's name. Corroborative evidence was given by Michael Reese, Frederick Meyer, Capt. Schuetzler, Lienta Koch and Ferner. The clothes were held up for the inspection of the jury. Then Mrs. Conklin took the stand, and identified each piece of clothing and each instrument as having been worn and carried by the doctor when he left his home on his fatal ride. She recollected each article perfectly, and the truth of her testimony was so self evident that the defense waived cross-examination.

Court then adjourned.

CAPTURED AT LAST.

Richard M. Mansfield Arrested for Horse Stealing in Buffalo, New York.

BUFFALO, Nov. 12.—Richard M. Mansfield, alias Robert Hamilton, was arrested near Bradford, Pa., Saturday evening for stealing a horse and buggy from this city, and brought back here yesterday. With his arrest an interesting story is brought to light.

For some time Mansfield had been employed in the New York Central freight office here under the name of Hamilton. When the horse and rig was stolen suspicion fell upon him, and detectives were detailed on the case. Inquiry into the man's antecedents reveals the fact that he is the convict Mansfield who, with a man named H. A. Smith, escaped from jail at Cleveland, O., on July 20 last, where Mansfield was confined for horse stealing.

On that occasion the sheriff and his deputies started in pursuit, and before daylight overtook the fugitives in a carriage and attempted to arrest them.
A terrific fight took place, in which several volleys were fired and one of the deputy sheriffs was fatally shot. The sheriff's posse retired with their wounded man, but soon thereafter set out again in pursuit of the fugitives. Smith was caught a few weeks later in Michigan, but Mansfield was not heard of until Saturday. He is looked up at police headquarters awaiting examination.

COTTON CROP REPORTS.

Indications of Better Yield Than Last Year, in Spite of Adverse Conditions.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The November cotton returns of the department of agriculture show a remarkable variation in condition in different localities. In North Carolina and Virginia the season has been very short and excessively wet and seriously injured by long continued rains in the season of blossoming. Tennessee reports injury to the crop by wet weather, lack of cultivation and early frosts during the past month. In these states the crop is much worse than that of last year.

Elsewhere the crop is comparatively late, especially from South Carolina to Alabama, with large growth of weed.
In lowlands early frosts have injured the crops east of Mississippi, while the uplands in the southern belt are still green. West of the Mississippi, in a large portion of the area, there has been no frost.

The weather for picking has been remarkably assuring the gathering without waste of all that is opened in excellent condition. The fiber is grading comparatively high.

Notwithstanding the rough conditions arising from abnormal distribution of moisture, affecting cultivation, growth and fruitage, the indications of yield per acre by county correspondents are 3 per cent. higher than last year.
So much still depends on future killing frosts and sunny weather for opening and gathering, that the result cannot be known very closely until after Christmas.

There has not been severe general loss by the caterpillar and boll worm, though the damage in some localities has been serious.

BARNUM IN LONDON.

Fifteen Thousand People Attend His Circus on the First Night.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—There were 15,000 first-nighters at Barnum's show at the Olympia last night. Such a circus none of them ever saw in Europe, to judge by the plaudits. Few of them ever saw such gorgeous spectacular effects as Karl's furnished in Nero. The show is bound to be an immense success, though it must be cut down, as it was long after midnight when the end came.

Before the show was opened Barnum was driven twice around the track in a handsome victoria. He received a great welcome.

There were several accidents. Annie Carroll fell from her horse four times, but received no injury until the last fall, which jarred her terribly, but broke no bones. In one of the double chariot races a horse broke his leg. An acrobat fell from a trapeze while doing a double somersault, but fell in a net unharmed.
Barnum believes the show will go, and nearly everybody else does, too.

More High Water at Johnstown.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Nov. 12.—The large bridge connecting Cambria City and Millvale was entirely demolished yesterday morning by the high water and drift in the Conemaugh river. The loss of this structure will greatly retard the removal of the dead from the Morellville cemetery to their permanent resting place in Prospect cemetery.

Not Satisfied With His Life.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 12.—John F. Buck-heimer, son of Fritz Buckheimer, the political "boss," of the Second ward, committed suicide by shooting himself yesterday at his home, corner of Albemarle street and Eastern avenue. He was 34 years old, and employed as a clerk in the custom house. No reason is known for the act.

The Hocking Valley.

A Suit of Great Interest to the People Thereof.

PROMINENT PERSONS INVOLVED.

Some Interesting History of the Various Coal Speculations in Athens, Hocking and Perry Counties, Ohio, About to Be Exposed to the Public—A Decision Anxiously Awaited.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 12.—A special to The Press from Logan, O., says: Some weeks ago the Boston Safe Deposit and Trust company filed a suit in the Hocking county common pleas, to foreclose a mortgage securing the bonds of the Ohio and Western Coal and Iron company, whose recent failure is still so severely felt throughout the valley.

Yesterday the answer and cross-petition of W. D. Lee was filed by his attorneys, Messrs. Ewing and Southard, of New York, and Fairbanks, Smith and Steele, of Columbus, and it bids fair to make a wide sensation and to expose to the public curiosity some of the interesting history of the various coal speculations in this part of the country.

The Ohio and Western Coal and Iron company was formed on the ruins of the Hocking Coal and Iron company, the Buchtel Iron company, The XX company, the Hope Furnace company, and the Standard Coal and Iron company; the last named having been the immediate predecessor of the Ohio and Western. These companies were owned by various eastern capitalists, and include among their projectors a number of well known public men, such as Hon. James G. Blaine, Gen. Thomas Ewing, Gen. James A. Hall, and Oakes Ames, of Massachusetts; as well as a number of men who were equally as well known on account of their bold speculation in the mineral resources of this state. Among the latter, and by far the most prominent, was W. D. Lee, formerly of Newark, O., but now a resident of New York, whose answer and cross petition, now on file, is of a most interesting and almost sensational character.

The answer covers fifty pages of typewriter matter, and fully sets out the scheme by which the Ohio and Western company was formed from the others which preceded it, and by the terms of which the new company, which had no existence, history or capital of its own, obtained the title to 6,000 acres of land in consideration of assuming the liabilities upon it, and which were to be paid by bonds, secured in turn by a mortgage on the identical property transferred from the old companies to the new.

Among the creditors of the old companies was W. D. Lee, who, by the terms of the agreement, was to receive the enormous sum of $1,303,250 in bonds of the Ohio and Western. These bonds were to be a part of the authorized issue of $5,500,000, secured by mortgage to the Boston Safe Deposit and Trust company, which is about to be foreclosed. Lee claims, however, that the bonds were never issued to him, but put in sink or sold by J. M.
Glidden, the president of the company of Glidden & Curtis, whose failure a year ago precipitated the ruin of the Ohio and Western.

It is also charged that bonds were fraudulently issued to other parties without consideration, and accepted by them in bad faith. The answer insists on these bonds, and the ones converted to the use of Glidden being turned over to Mr. Lee so that he may prorate with other creditors, who hold their bonds in good faith, out of the proceeds of the mortgaged premises, which include about 6,000 acres of coal lands in Athens, Hocking and Perry counties.

The great mineral resources owned by the Ohio and Western in these three counties has necessarily been inactive since its failure, which has, therefore, been most far reaching in its extent and character, and has greatly depressed the industries and enterprises of the Hocking Valley, and a speedy decision of this suit is anxiously looked forward to by our people.

THE WORLD'S FAIR.

An Illinois Congressman Has Already Prepared a Bill for Congress.

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—Congressman Payson, of Illinois, has prepared a bill and will present it to congress, asking that the world's fair of 1892 be held in Chicago. It provides for the free entry of all foreign articles imported for the sole purpose of exhibition, and asks for no appropriation except $50,000 to be expended in connection with the admission of foreign goods for the exposition, and a sum sufficient to cover the contingent expenses entailed in exhibiting a life saving station and other articles belonging to the United States government.

The bill further provides that under no circumstances shall the United States be liable for any debt or obligation of the corporation known as "The World's Exposition of 1892."

New York's Fund.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The world's fair guarantee fund has reached $2, 755,342.

TOLEDO, O., Nov. 12.—The state fish commission some time ago ordered all the gill nets in the western end of Lake Erie confiscated. Last week the steamer Birkhead was chartered, manned and sent out upon this mission. The steamer returned last night, having taken possession of 150 nets and a number of tons of fish. The owners of the illegal nets offered resistance in several cases, and bloodshed was narrowly averted.
The commission is determined that the laws shall be respected.

MISS FRANCES E. WILLARD.

Again Elected President of the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—The Women's Christian Temperance Union convention, at its session yesterday, re-elected Miss Frances E. Willard president of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union by an almost unanimous vote. Miss Willard withdrew while an informal ballot was being taken, and Mrs.
Mary T. Burt, of

FRANCIS E. WILLARD, the New York Women's Christian Temperance Union, vice president, was called to the chair.
The ballot resulted: Frances E. Willard, 480; Mrs. J. Ellen Foster, 11; Mrs.
May H. Hunt, 5; scattering, 14; blank, 3. A motion to elect by directing the secretary to cast the ballot of the convention was carried by a standing vote, only the Iowa delegation, headed by Mrs. Foster, remaining seated. In expressing her thanks for the honor conferred upon her Miss Willard said she was sure that many of the delegates supported her for office who were not in sympathy with her methods. This she took to mean that they expected her to keep peace, and, so far as lay in her power she would follow the bidding of these veterans. What they had done had put her under a blessed restraint.

Mrs. Caroline B. Beall was then re-elected corresponding secretary; Mrs.
Mary A. Woodbridge, recording secretary; Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens, assistant recording secretary, and Miss Esther Pugh, treasurer.

Miss Willard announced that there remained due her from the sale of her book, "Glimpses of Fifty Years," a balance of $2,800, which sum she hereby donated to the society. Amid great confusion Miss Pugh moved that the convention should not accept the money which Miss Willard had earned by her own hard work, but the president refused to put the motion, and promptly ruled Miss Pugh out of order when the latter attempted to put it herself. Miss Willard's gift is one of the largest ever tendered the Women's Christian Temperance union.

The remainder of the day's session was devoted to speech making and the reading of reports.

During the evening session occurred the National oratorical contest for the first diamond medal offered by W. Jennings Demorest, publisher of Demorest's Magazine, in the Demorest series of prizes. There were seven contestants. The prize was awarded to little Daisy Stoddard, an 11-year-old girl from Nebraska, who delivered an address, entitled, "Liquor an Outrage."

Gen. Neal Dow, of Maine, and Gen.
Clinton B. Fiske, the Prohibition party candidate for president, delivered short addresses on the evils of the liquor traffic.

PASSENGER STEAMER BURNED.

Fifteen Persons on Board Rescued on Two Rafts.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 12.—Yesterday the passenger steamer S. H. Libby, from Whatcom, Puget Sound, was totally destroyed by fire in the straits between Duganose and Smith's island.
Fifteen passengers were on board at the time. The Libby was laden with 500 barrels of lime, which got wet and ignited.

While crossing the straits a strong wind came up. Several heavy seas were shipped. An accident to the rudder left the ship helpless. The passengers were compelled to take to two rafts, the rapid progress of the flames rendering lifeboats helpless. One of the rafts nearly foundered before those clinging to it were rescued. The schooner Jean Filley took all from the rafts. The hull of the Libby was taken to Port Townsend and sunk. The steamer with cargo was valued at $30, 000. The Libby was owned by Robert T. Beecher, late government agent at Port Townsend. Several bags of United States mail were burned on the steamer.

SACRILEGIOUS WORK.

Several Hundred Bibles Publicly Burned in Front of a Church.

OTTAWA, Ont., Nov. 12.—A gentleman who has just returned from the province of Quebec says that in one parish after mass on Sunday morning he saw several hundred Bibles publicly burned in front of the church at the instance of the cure of the parish, who had collected them from his parishioners. Agents from one of the Bible societies have been selling large numbers of the New Testament in this particular part of the province, and after warning his congregation against purchasing the cure went from house to house collecting from those of his flock who had disobeyed his orders, the books they purchased.

The society has now devised a scheme by which they intend bringing the priest before the courts if he attempts to repeat his sacrilegious work. The agents will loan the Bibles to those desiring them, and will then, be in a position to prosecute should the books be destroyed or taken from the holders.

Badly Disfigured Corpse.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 12.—Joseph Guion, aged 50 years, was found drowned in Buffalo creek yesterday. Both feet were cut off and his neck and left arm were broken. He came here from Milwaukee, and was employed as a grain scooper. It is supposed he was struck by a propeller wheel after falling into the water.

Church Damaged by Fire.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Nov. 12.—Sunday night the Christian church on Main street was badly damaged by fire.

Six States elected Governors last week and five of the successful candidates are Democrats. It was a good week for Democrats.

DURING the coming winter, in the States embracing the Ohio Valley the cold wave flag display will signify that a fall in temperature within twenty-four hours of more than eighteen degrees and reaching below thirty-four degrees is expected.

COMMENTING on the trouble a year or so ago between Colonels Goodloe and Swope, the Paris Kentuckian says: "In talking with his friends of the difficulty with Colonel Goodloe, Colonel Swope remarked: 'Well, if we meet in mortal combat I hope he may kill me, as I would rather die than make orphans of his children.' Many will testify to this."

HERE is a strong argument for the Australian ballot-system. It was tested in Massachusetts last week, and "a voter in Springfield, who made the test, was not button-holed by a single worker in visits to a round dozen of precincts." "This absolute freedom from solicitation and annoyance," says an exchange, "is a feature that ought to be introduced into every system of voting. It is an American right."

THE Republicans of New Jersey, it is asserted, had a corruption fund of from $3,000,000 to $500,000, at the late election, and left nothing undone to defeat Abbott. In this they were aided by the railroad corporations. But Democracy triumphed, and Abbott was elected by a phenomenally large majority. The New Heaven Register says "the result shows that boodles is not always king, and gives rise to hopeful suggestions for the future."

"In 1850 the value of American farms, according to the census, amounted to $3,271,575,421," says the Louisville Times; in 1860 their value had increased to $6,645,045,007, an advance of $3,373,469,586, or more than 100 per cent. in ten years of free trade. In 1880 the value of farms was $10,197,096,776, an advance of $3,552,051,769, or about 50 per cent., during twenty years of protection. These figures are pregnant of suggestions to American farmers, who have been crippled for nearly thirty years by a system that obliges them to contribute 47 per cent. of their earnings to 'protect' their fellow citizens engaged in manufacturing."

Democracy's Mission.

A very sound definition of the mission of the Democracy is that given by Colonel Lamont in his already celebrated interview published in Friday's Star:

The discountenance of unnecessary taxation the adjustment of necessary taxation so that the burdens of Government shall be justly distributed, and that labor shall be encouraged and capital fairly protected.

There is no sincere Democrat that cannot subscribe to this accurate generalization of Democratic purposes on the vital question of the distribution of public burdens.—New York Star.

That Tragedy.

Commenting on the Swope-Goodloe tragedy, "Tittler" of the Louisville Times said: "I heard a story this morning which, to my mind, goes far toward explaining the bitterness of the feeling between the two men. It was that Colonel Swope had told some one at Crab Orchard that Colonel Goodloe had insulted him when he first took up his residence in Lexington. He was then a stranger there, and asked Colonel Goodloe to introduce him to some of the old families. Colonel Goodloe, who has always prided himself upon his social connections, refused, saying that the latter was not his equal. This was such an insult as the proud nature of the self-made man could never forgive. Junius said that a man could forgive an injury, but not an insult, because the latter offense degraded a man in his own esteem, and he could only regain his self-respect by revenge. For years and years the sting of slights was rankling in Swope's bosom, and there was a constant prompting to revenge. He insulted Goodloe, and the latter was ready to take a life to satisfy his mortified pride. What other result could be expected?"

Collision on the C. & O.

A westbound C. & O. freight train consisting of thirty-three cars drawn by engine 145, engineer Norman Wilson in charge, and yard engine 17, engineer Frank Smith in charge, collided shortly after 7 o'clock this morning. The accident happened in Chester. No one hurt. The cow-catcher of No. 145 was smashed.

No. 17 got the worst of it and was badly wrecked. One car had an end stove in.

The accident delayed the accommodation train several hours, but the side track has been cleared, and trains are again on time.

The wrecked engine, still block the main track.

HEWITT RESIGNS.

State Insurance Commissioner Norman Appointed to Fill the Vacancy.

Henry T. Duncan Succeeds Mr. Norman—Editor Havens Takes Duncan's Place.

General Fayette Hewitt, State Auditor, resigned yesterday and has returned to private life.

General Hewitt's first entrance into public life in Kentucky was under an appointment by Governor Stevenson, in 1867, as Quarter-Master General. This office he resigned April 6, 1876. After that he was in private life until he was elected Auditor to succeed the late Colonel D. Howard Smith. This was in 1880, and he filed the position until yesterday. His services to the State in reforming and raising the revenue and closely investigating and putting an end to frauds practiced on the State Treasury by claim sharks, are features of his administration deserving praise.

The following is the resignation and the executive order accepting it:

FRANKFORT, November 1, 1890.
Hon. S. B. Buckner, Governor—Dear Sir: Finding that certain duties and responsibilities which I assumed some time since, apart from the Auditorship, have grown to be of such importance that the demands upon my attention are so great as to place me in the alternative of neglecting one or the other, I deem it best to tender you my resignation of the office of Auditor of Public Accounts to take effect on the 11th instant.

I can not do this without thanking you for your hearty support and unvarying kindness and courtesy on all occasions and expressing my deep sense of the intelligent, earnest and unselfish manner in which you have continually labored to better the condition of our good old Commonwealth.

With high regard and best wishes, yours truly, FAYETTE HEWITT.

Executive Department, Frankfort, Nov. 1, 1890: (Executive Order)—1. The resignation of Gen. CARTER'S TROUBLE.

Some of Her Bondholders Trying to Make Her Whack Down the Cash.

Says the Cincinnati Enquirer: "Mr. David Sinton Saturday took another crack at Carter County, Ky., in the United States Court in Covington. He wants $47,506 35 and interest from 1878. This is the second claim that Mr. Sinton has had against Carter County. When there was talk of issuing bonds for the construction of the Lexington and Big Sandy Railroad Carter County issued bonds, and Mr. Sinton became the purchaser of about $75,000 worth of them. At the last session of the United States Court in Covington he recovered a judgment for about $35,000. The Butler heirs, of Hamilton County, were also owners of a large amount of the bonds.

"Chester C. Magann, of West Virginia, also filed a suit against Carter County for about $10,000 on the same bonds. He recovered judgment some time since for the amount, and he now seeks to compel the County Judge of Carter County to levy a special tax on the property of Carter County to pay the amount of the judgment. Mr. Sinton will be compelled to take a similar action to recover his money.

"Edward Dawson, of Cincinnati, has also filed a suit against Carter County to recover $2,012 due on Carter County bonds held by him."

SAME OLD STORY.

Nominations Followed by Declinations at the Republican Convention.

The Ticket as Completed—A Frank Acknowledgment From Captain Hutchins.

To nominate or not to nominate Whether 'twere better to postpone matters till a future day and await developments, or to take advantage of the present opportunity and launch their ticket forthwith on the turbulent sea of politics.

That was the question that agitated the Republicans of Mason County in their convention yesterday, to select nominees to be voted for in August, 1890.

Capt. Hutchins, Dr. Gault, the chairman, and a few others were decidedly opposed to placing a ticket in the field at the present time. They wanted the matter postponed for awhile, until next May or next June, so that the party might look the field over carefully, lay their plans well and then make a short, sharp and vigorous fight all along the line.

But this sentiment did not prevail. Mr. Thomas A. Davis opposed it. Mr. Wm. H. Cox opposed it, and the convention voted against postponing the matter.

The attendance was a little larger than is generally seen at Republican county conventions. As usual, many Democrats were present as lookers-on, to enjoy the fun.

It was 2 o'clock when Thomas A. Davis, Chairman of the Executive Committee, called the house to order.

On motion of W. H. Lynch, Dr. Gault, of Murphysville, was chosen to preside over the meeting. Dr. Gault was in favor of postponing matters, and said so.

A motion to wait until county court day next June to select the ticket was lost. A motion to postpone the nominations until next May was also lost, as was also a motion to postpone matters indefinitely.

Captain Hutchins was placed in nomination for Secretary, but he declined the honor and nominated T. A. Davis. The latter gentleman regarded his nomination for Secretary as a sort of "chestnut" and nominated W. C. Shackelford, who consented to act. Mr. Shackelford was elected and the house was ready for business.

Wm. H. Cox led off by placing Captain Hutchins in nomination for County Judge. The Captain didn't seem to hanker after any honor of that kind, and asked that his name be withdrawn. The convention refused to listen to him and he was given the nomination unanimously.

For County Attorney, H. C. Sharp placed George W. Adair in nomination. Some one named A. A. Wadsworth, but that gentleman arose and said very emphatically that he would not accept and he wanted his name withdrawn. His wishes were complied with. Squire Hunter then named Horatio Ficklin, but the 'Squire was "a little too previous," as he intended nominating Mr. Ficklin for Clerk. This left the field clear for Mr. Adair and he was nominated unanimously. He was not present, otherwise there might have been another declination to chronicle.

W. B. Dawson, Jonas Myall, 'Squire Wells and 'Squire Williams were placed in nomination for Sheriff. Messrs. Wells, Williams and Dawson were withdrawn. Some one asked that Mr. Myall's name be withdrawn also, as he was not apt to accept, but no attention was paid to the request, and Mr. Myall was given the honor.

For County Clerk Messrs. Horatio Ficklin, Hayes Thomas and James R. Hunter were placed in nomination. Mr. Ficklin's name was promptly withdrawn and Mr. Thomas said he would have to decline. This settled it, and Mr. Hunter was given the honor.

Mr. M. R. Gilmore was nominated for Jailor. 'Squire Hunter and W. B. Dawson were named for the place, but the 'Squire declined, and Mr. Dawson received but three or four votes.

For Assessor, Albert N. Huff was placed in nomination, but somehow or other the fact was lost sight of. Scott Fletcher, of Orangeburg, was named just afterwards, but declined.

"All the nominations but one so far come from Maysville," said Mr. Fletcher, "and you had better go ahead and complete the ticket from this city."

This was very unkind in the gentleman from Orangeburg, as it took the wind completely out of Mr. Thomas A. Davis' argument at the opening of the meeting against the Democratic ticket—that every man on it hailed from Maysville. The convention, having recovered from Mr. Fletcher's shot, some one nominated O. C. Degman. Mr. Degman declined on the spot. Dr. Gault called for more nominations, but they were slow in forthcoming.

"Gentlemen," said the Chairman, "it looks like the Democratic nominee is so popular we can't get any one to run against him."

At this point, Dr. Gault discovered Thomas Mahar in the audience and got off a few words of praise for his friend and neighbor. The convention fell in, and Mr. Mahar was nominated, notwithstanding he persistently declined and requested the withdrawal of his name.

"Does any one want the nomination for Coroner?" inquired the Chairman.

Somebody named Judge Geo. W. Dye, of Sardis.

"I wouldn't have it, if you'd give it to me," spoke up the Judge.

Mr. Dye was given the honor all the same.

A motion to endorse the candidacy of Miss Mary P. Chambers for Superintendent of Schools, was made. It prevailed over a motion to nominate Hayes Thomas, of Fern Leaf, for the position.

This completed the list.

Captain Hutchins here arose and declined the nomination for County Judge. He could not make the race, he said, because defeat was inevitable. If there was any life remaining in the convention, this knocked it all out.

Some one moved to adjourn.

A motion that the Executive Committee be authorized to fill all the vacancies on the ticket was adopted.

W. H. Lynch offered a resolution deploring the death of Collector Goodloe, and recommending Captain Hutchins to the appointive power as the choice of Mason County Republicans to fill the vacancy. It was adopted.

The convention then adjourned.

COURT OF CLAIMS.

What Was Done at the Called Session—Investigating a Turnpike Company.

At a called meeting of the Mason County Court of Claims yesterday a sum equal to three-fifths of the cost of the new branch of the Maysville and Blue Run turnpike was voted the company.

A motion was afterwards adopted authorizing Judge Coons and County Attorney Newell to take such action as may be necessary to protect the interests of the county in the Cabin Creek and Springdale turnpike. In 1881 or 1882 this company reported part of its road completed, and a committee consisting of 'Squires Grant and Pollitt and Mr. Harvey Meenachs was appointed to measure and receive it. This was done, the committee reporting two miles and a few rods, and the company was paid the county's subscription at the rate of $1,500 a mile.

Recently, Judge Coons received intimations from people in the neighborhood that the measurement was not correct. He at once sent Mr. W. C. Pelham to investigate the matter. That gentleman measured the road and the two miles referred to turned out to be only 1½ miles.

A plain statement of the case is that the county is out nearly $400. In other words the company drew that much more than it was entitled to.

The matter is to be fully investigated.

Another State Admitted

Washington is Now One of the New States.

FORTY-SECOND IN THE UNION.

The President Signs the Proclamation of Admission, and the Territorial and State Governor of Washington Notified of the Fact—Other Washington Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—President Harrison late yesterday afternoon signed and issued the proclamation declaring the territory of Washington to be a state in the Union. The president, in the proclamation, after reciting the terms of the act of congress providing for the admission of the new state, says:

"Now, therefore, I Benjamin Harrison, president of the United States of America, do, in accordance with the provisions of the act of congress aforesaid, declare and proclaim the fact that the conditions imposed by congress on the state of Washington to entitle that state to admission to the Union have been ratified and accepted, and that the admission of said state into the Union is now complete."

The president affixed his signature to the proclamation at 5:17 yesterday evening, and Secretary of State Blaine afterwards notified the territorial and state governor of Washington by telegraph of this action.

Army Pay Officer's Report.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Paymaster General William B. Rochester, of the army, has submitted his annual report to the secretary of war. The amount deposited by enlisted men with pay officers during the fiscal year was $353,798, a slight decrease from the amount deposited during the previous year. This decrease may be due to the fact that owing to the more frequent payments the enlisted men who usually made deposits of small amounts do not feel inclined to deposit only half the sum to deposit so large a proportion of it.

To encourage these men and to give them every opportunity to save their money, it is recommended that the minimum limit to the amount that may be deposited be reduced from $5 to $3. The system of monthly payments has been extended to seventy-two of the 135 posts in the service, but a further extension cannot be made without an increase in the number of paymasters. The money statements show a deficiency in the appropriations.

Supreme Court Decision.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The supreme court of the United States has rendered an opinion affirming the judgment of the supreme court of North Carolina in the case of Cross and White, the president and cashier respectively, of the State National bank of Raleigh, N. C. The crime with which they were charged and convicted in the state court was forgery of a promissory note and making of a false entry in the books of the bank for the purpose of deceiving the National bank examiner as to the financial condition of the bank. It was contended in behalf of Cross and White that their offense was cognizable in the Federal and not in the state courts. The supreme court has decided against the convicted bank officers, and they will suffer the penalty fixed by the Wake county court—Cross seven years and White five years' hard work on the public roads of the county.

Getting Instructions.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Warren C. Sayre, of Indiana, recently appointed a member of the Cherokee Indian commission, was at the interior department yesterday and received at the hands of Secretary Noble instructions in regard to the duties of the position. Mr. Sayre will at once repair to the Cherokee outlet and join the commission which is now there engaged in conferring with the Indians for the surrender to the United States of the lands known as the Cherokee strip.

He had a revolver in his possession which had two empty chambers.

KILLED BY AN EXPLOSION.

Three Lives Snuffed Out in a Philadelphia Chemical Works.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 12.—Three men were killed by a terrific explosion in Wylie & Wallace's chemical works, 134 North Fourth street, yesterday afternoon. At 3:45 o'clock the noise of an explosion startled the passers by, and then every pane of glass in the lower stories of the building blew out in splinters. A gush of flame followed, and almost in the instant the factory seemed to be enveloped in flames. When the explosion occurred the three men were knocked down as though with one shot.

Four girls who were employed in the upper floors were rescued. One of them was badly cut by flying glass, and Joseph Brown, a clerk in the office, was out about the head and face.

As each body was found the firemen loaded them on stretchers and had them sent to the morgue in patrol wagons. One of the dead men is the senior member of his firm, and his companions in death were employees. The names of the dead were Joseph Wylie, one of the members of the firm; Rudolph, an employee; Kennard, an employee. The substance that exploded was flash powder, which had been standing in a large bottle on a shelf for a long time. Mr. Wylie concluded to get rid of the dangerous stuff and was pouring it out into a sink when the explosion occurred. Charles Rhinedollar and Rudolph Lippmann were helping him by playing a hose on the powder. Just what caused the explosion is not known, but it is supposed that the powder, being old, stuck fast, and that Mr. Wylie knocked the bottle against the sink to start it. The three men were torn to pieces. William Kidd, the engineer, and Thomas Haslam, the bookkeeper, were slightly injured.

Mr. Wylie was 38 years old and leaves a large family. Rhinedollar was a chemist; he was 29 years old and married. Lippmann was 19 years old. About a year ago a boy was killed while handling flash powder in the works and the boy's father is suing the firm for damages. Mr. Wylie, on returning from court yesterday said he would get rid of the last of that powder and it was while doing so that the disaster occurred.

Review of the Money, Stocks and Cattle Quotations for Nov. 11.

WALL STREET, NEW YORK.—Money on call was easy, with rates ranging from 5 to 6 per cent. Currency notes, 117½ bid; four coupon, 127 bid; four-and-a-hals do, 105½ bid.

The stock market opened active this morning, but the tone was weak. The first prices were off fractionally from Saturday's prices, and during the first thirty minutes values further declined. Atchison and Lackawanna were the leaders of the decline. At 11:30 the general railroad list was off ¼ to 1 per cent. Tennessee Coal was exceptionally weak, and declined on a small amount of trading from 62 to 61½ per cent. The Trust stocks were all strong. Cotton Seed Oil advanced 1½ and Sugar Trusts 1½. After 10:30 there was more support, extended the list, and there was a fractional recovery in some cases. Tennessee Coal recovered to 64½. In the hour to noon the market was excessively dull and prices sagged from sheer inactivity. At this writing about the lowest figures of the day are current.

OPERA HOUSE.

TUESDAY, November 12th

Special engagement of the well-known English Comedian, GEORGE ELTON, Miss Madeline Marston and a powerful, first class company, in the famous play, in three acts, entitled by the great English dramatist, Geo. R. Sims, author of the "Lights of London," "The Roman Rye," "Harbour Lights," etc. The New York World says: "It is a wild success in London. It will be a success here. There is not a dull scene or a stupid line in the piece. The dialogue is brilliant, the action brisk, and the situations tumble over each other with bewildering rapidity." MOTHER-IN-LAW had a run of 401 nights at the Opera Comique, London, and 200 nights in New York, and is universally acknowledged to be the funniest comedy of modern times.

MOTHER-IN-LAW!
